

Testing & Certification

Warwick Mills performs testing on its products to assure high levels of performance as well as consistent results. Warwick is ISO 9001 Certified & our laboratory supports both product development & production certification. We currently supply products to the US Government and are an approved DoD lab. We also participate in independent testing such as Europe's CE Marking & the US's NIJ specifications for Law Enforcement and Corrections applications.

